

THE HISTORIC

St James Church

St James, for which this concert series is named, is currently closed to the public due to structural issues.

Therefore our Autumn Series will be held at All Souls, Clevedon. Dedicated in 1861, All Souls has played host to countless occasions of significance: baptisms, weddings, funerals and regular worship.

Services continue to be offered at 9.30am on Sundays, alternating between All Souls Clevedon and Christ Church Alfriston. Check our website for details.

Sanctuary St James - Autumn at All Souls

1. Ensemble Aaru

SUNDAY 5 MAY AT 7.00PM

Ensemble Aaru is a reed quintet (oboe, bassoon, clarinet, bass clarinet and saxophone) made up of principal players from Auckland Philharmonia Orchestra and top freelance players based in Auckland. The players have performed internationally and received numerous awards from New Zealand and overseas.

The reed quintet was established as a new line up of wind instruments in one ensemble 40 years ago, and has available to it a multitude of sounds. Aaru's current repertoire includes both orchestral and contemporary music, which the ensemble is able to recreate through the many different tones and colours of the instruments.

2. Next Offramp

SUNDAY 12 MAY AT 7.00PM

Next Offramp is a 10 Voice contemporary acapella vocal group. Their eclectic repertoire is a mix of popular songs, along with some wonderfully obscure gems that blur the lines between pop, jazz and folk. Described as "edgy", with tight rhythms, fresh harmonies, and groove, Next Offramp has plenty of energy and heart.

The singers include an architect, accountant, GP, a couple of general managers, an IT whizz, an editor, function planner, emergency response manager, and cartographer. Their voices, experiences and personalities are as eclectic as the music they perform.

Their performance is entitled "Life's journey - unplugged"

3. Auckland Chamber Music Collective

SUNDAY 19 MAY AT 7.00PM

The Auckland Chamber Music Collective (ACMC) was formed in late 2022 with the idea of being an independent collective of high-calibre musicians who aim to promote local and living composers and support more gender equality in Classical/contemporary music. The group's current formation is a piano quintet/string quartet but is a flexible ensemble.

ACMC will be performing NZ composer Salina Fisher's 'Heal' and Beethoven's String Quartet Op. 18 No. 5 alongside some of the Danish String Quartet's 'Wood Works' – unique arrangements of Scandinavian folk tunes. This concert will feature Charmian Keay and Miyo Yoon on violin, Vincent Hardaker on viola and Karen French on cello.

4. Shindig

SUNDAY 26 MAY AT 7.00PM

Inspired by unvarnished music of artists such as Dock Boggs, Roscoe Holcomb and Leadbelly, Shindig present stonking new takes on old-time folk, blues and country tunes from the American pantheon. The trio consists of the driving clawhammer banjo and vocals of David Ward, (Indian ink Theatre Co, Ruckus) the vital fiddle and mandolin of Dave Khan (Marlon Williams, Reb Fountain) and the rock solid foundation of Eamon Edmundson-Wells on Double Bass. (Louisa Nicklin)

Concert 1 is $35 per ticket and includes supper. Concerts 2-4 are $30 per ticket. Full season tickets available for $105. Visit: clevedonanglicans.org.nz/concert-series.html
